

Addendum A – articulation of UCSC courses for the MIIS MA TESOL Accelerated Entry Program

Students from the UCSC Department of Linguistics (Linguistics majors and Language Studies majors) can meet MA TESOL advanced entry requirements (8-10 semester credits) at UCSC through a range of combinations of the courses in the charts below.

The MIIS MA TESOL degree has a 6-credit elective requirement. MIIS can count up to 3 courses (6 credits) from those courses in the charts below that are indicated as electives.

Linguistics courses

UCSC course	MIIS articulation
LING 50 Intro to Linguistics	2 credits of our 3 credit language analysis course. The 3 rd credit would be done as directed study by attending language analysis course for selected topics and doing related assignments.
Ling 50 - Semantics	2 credits of electives
Ling 80d – Language and Mind	2 credits of electives
Ling 80V – Structure of English Vocabulary	2 credits of electives
Ling 108 – Poetry and Language	2 credits of electives
Ling 117 – Pragmatics	2 credits of electives
Ling 140 – Language and Change	2 credits of electives
Ling 155 – Language and Cognition	2 credits of electives
Ling 154 – Language and Social Identity	2 credits of our 3 credit Intro to sociolinguistics course. The third credit would be completed as a directed study by attending class sessions in our socio course for select topics and doing associated assignment(s).

Applied Linguistics courses

UCSC course	MIIS articulation
APLX101- Second Language Acquisition	2 credits of our 3 credit second language acquisition course; students would do the third credit as a directed study by attending class sessions in our second language acquisition course for select topics and doing associated assignment(s)

APLX116- Discourse Analysis	2 credits of electives
APLX102- Bilingualism	2 credits of electives
APLX135/235- Second Language Teaching	This course can be taken towards all 4 credits of our course, Principles and Practices of Language Teaching 1
APLX 112- Language and Gender	2 credits of electives
AALX 115- Language and Power	2 credits of electives