

An agreement between

Department of Linguistics

and

Monterey Institute of International Studies

A Graduate School of Middlebury College

The University of California, Santa Cruz (UC Santa Cruz)'s Department of Linguistics (Linguistics) and the Monterey Institute of International Studies (Monterey Institute), a graduate school of Middlebury College, hereby agree to set up an agreement for academic cooperation. UC Santa Cruz Linguistics will encourage its undergraduate major students to attend The Monterey Institute's Advanced Entry MA Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (MATESOL) or Advanced Entry MA in Teaching a Foreign Language (MATFL) program. The Monterey Institute will, in return, accept credit from UC Santa Cruz Linguistics or Language Studies coursework toward eligibility for The Monterey Institute Advanced Entry MATESOL or MATFL program.

Details of the agreement are outlined below:

1. UC Santa Cruz Linguistics or Language Studies students who wish to apply must be fully qualified for admission to the Monterey Institute MATESOL/MATFL Program, as determined by the Monterey Institute and published on the Web site, www.miis.edu
2. When a Linguistics or Language Studies BA student from UC Santa Cruz is admitted to the Monterey Institute Advanced Entry MATESOL or MATFL program, credits will be accepted (at the discretion of the Monterey Institute) toward the degree as shown below.
 - 7 semester credits will be accepted toward the graduate requirement credits for the Advanced Entry MATESOL making the student eligible for the 30-unit Advanced Entry TESOL program
 - 7-10 semester credits will be accepted toward the graduate requirement credits for the Advanced Entry MATFL program making the student eligible for the 30-33 unit Advanced Entry MATFL program.
3. The specific UC Santa Cruz courses which may be accepted as requirements or electives to either the Advanced Entry MATESOL or MATFL program are listed by program in Addendum A. Only courses with a grade of B (3.0) or above may be accepted, and must be completed no more than five years prior to application to the Monterey Institute.

4. The UC Santa Cruz students who apply will be given special consideration for competitive merit-based scholarships with the Monterey Institute which range between $4,000 and $16,000 per year.
5. The students from the UC Santa Cruz Linguistics or Language Studies Program should send all required admissions documents and a copy of this agreement when they apply to the MA TESOL/MATFL program at the Monterey Institute.
6. Monterey Institute will regularly provide informational materials about the Monterey Institute and the Language Education programs to UC Santa Cruz.
7. UC Santa Cruz Linguistics will actively publicize the Monterey Institute's Advanced Entry MATESOL and MATFL programs to their undergraduate students.

Both signatories agree to review this agreement after three years following the date of signing. Both acknowledge that this Agreement is subject to revision at any time by mutual consent or by email prior notice by either party. Either party may terminate this Agreement for any reason upon 12 months prior written notice to the other.
